

The Granville Museum is a Blue Star Museum sharing stories of it's Historic Past this Year.

January 1, 2012

Blue Star Museums have opened their doors to active duty military and their families.

Contact:
Granville Museum
931-653-4151

Military families have all year to enjoy free admission at the Granville Museum, Sutton General Store, Sutton Homestead and Pioneer Village in Granville, TN.

The Granville Museum and the Sutton General Store(1880) are an attractive stop on the Civil War, Promised Land and the Upper Cumberland Quilt Trails.

The Museum, its properties and many yearly events “bring you back to yesteryear.” 60 miles East of Nashville.

The museum houses stories about, a rich river boat history, strong agricultural ties, World War II maneuvers, small town life, and diverse musical roots. Sutton General Store Built in 1880, Sutton Homestead and Pioneer Village.

Saturday May 26, 2012: 14th Annual “Heritage Day” Other activities that day will be Antique Car Show, 9th Uncle Jimmy Thompson Bluegrass Festival, and much more.

<http://www.granvillemuseum.com/>

Saturday May 26, 2012: 14th Annual “Heritage Day” Granville, TN

Blue Star Museums is a partnership between the National Endowment for the Arts and Blue Star Families, a national, non-partisan, non-profit network of military families from all ranks and services including guard and reserve, with a mission to support, connect and empower military families. Learn more about Blue Star Museums across the country by visiting the Blue Star Museums page at www.arts.gov.